COME all you pretty maidens gay,
And listen unto me,
Will you wed with a saucy plough boy
Whose heart is light and free.

For the plough boys they are merry lads
To the fields they'll haste away,
While the pretty maids are milking,
Or making of sweet hay.

I'll rise in the morning early,
And trip along with joy,
While the small birds sing so charming
I'm a saucy ploughing boy.

See the lambs how they are sporting,
And we will kiss and toy,
I've silver in my pocket love,
A saucy ploughing boy.

I am kind and free hearted,
No care shall me annoy,
I'm frolicsome and easy,
A saucy farmer's boy.

They love for to be dancing,
They're jovial and so free;
Come along you saucy plough boy,
No other lads for me.

But mark returning home again,
When a milking you have been,
The meadows look so charming love,
Will you wear the gown of green.

Do you tease me, you can please me
This damsel she would cry,
And with my saucy plough boy mean to live and die.
